

5 Most Important Things To Know About Your Business Coach: Michael Conner

Coach Michael

1

A Coach Who Gets Results...

Over his career, Michael excels in getting results. Not afraid of a challenge, he willingly steps in to help in what somewhat seems to be the impossible situation. From working with a small business trying to set up video calls to building KPI dashboards for Fortune 100 companies, he is there to ensure success in business.

2

A Coach Who Cares...

Michael has a passion to help others. Behind every business is an individual who has a dream and vision. Understanding those dreams, hearing the passion, and working with every businessperson to fulfill their dreams is at the heart of Michael's coaching. To be effective, he approaches coaching uniquely for everyone, based on their needs.

3

A Coach Who is an Entrepreneur...

Entrepreneurs are the movers and shakers. When starting a new endeavor in 1998, Michael used the same strategies he now coaches in others. He understands entrepreneurs as risk takers and quick decision makers.

4

A Coach who is an Educator...

Michael loves teaching. Whether it is working with young college students looking to enter the work force or professionals learning new skills, Michael doesn't just teach, he educates. He teaches with fun and entertainment.

5

A Husband, Father, and Community Member...

Michael's company name, MAWE Professional Coaching, illustrates his core. It is Michael, wife Artemis, son William (Bill), and daughter Eugenia (Evie). They enjoy spending time with each other, whether on the golf course or watching movies. Active in their parish, Michael serves on the parish council and Artemis cooks for the annual Greek Festival. Their vision is that every person they touch realizes Abundant Life.
